Forecast for Thursday 01 Sep 2022

Weather: Some early mist and fog in the valleys will clear quickly through Thursday leaving a dry and bright morning. Cloudy at times through the afternoon, though staying dry, with some sunny intervals still likely. Staying dry into the evening with a few light showers developing overnight.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 70% increasing to 90% by midday.

Low cloud and visibility: Locally very poor visibility in any early mist and fog. This will lift and clear through the morning, however it may cover some slopes and summits for a time, with bases 400-600m. Any cloud will continue to lift to be above the summits by midday. Otherwise good visibility expected, although some distant hills appearing hazy.

Forecast for Friday 02 Sep 2022

Weather: Some isolated mist and fog patches will clear quickly through the morning. A cloudier day on Friday, with a chance of showers, mainly during the afternoon. The showers will be moving in from the south and may be heavy at times, which may cause some localised flooding. Showers continuing overnight and into Saturday.

Maximum wind: Easterly, 15-20mph, gusts up to 25mph. Becoming southeasterly, 5-10mph by late afternoon.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 80%

Low cloud and visibility: Locally poor visibility in any early mist and fog. Any early cloud may briefly cover some slopes and the summits as it lifts through the morning. Cloud will be mainly above the summits for the rest of the day, though bases dropping to 400-600m in any showers. Good visibility expected, though becoming moderate to poor in any heavy showers.

Temperature: Valleys: Plus 13 Celsius rising to plus 24 Celsius.
At 600m: Plus 9 Celsius rising to plus 15 Celsius.
Freezing level: Above all summits.
